JHINGANS JOTTINGS

Hi

The travails of being in a connected world have to be felt by the users at some point of time. One of us used to have an email address madhukar@email.com, nothing unusual about it, this was a service provided by snap.com. In February this year snap.com was taken over by xoom.com, nothing unusual about that either, except the fact that the email address was arbitrarily changed to madhukar.1@email.com. Unfortunately this was the address that was provided as owner/registrant for stampsofindia.com to the registrars. Now we have been trying our best to get this changed in the records of the registrar Network Solutions but have not succeeded so far. And our current server will not host this site after December 31, 2000. We had made alternate arrangements in September to shift the site to a better server farm and it shall be available at <http://64.37.110.48> till further notice. In simple terms if one types www.stampsofindia.com on January 1, 2001 they may not find our site.

PLEASE SEND EMAILS TO webmaster@stampsofindia.net INSTEAD OF ALL OTHER ADDRESSES AT STAMPSOFINDIA.COM FOR THE TIME BEING.

Please include us in your prayers that the registrars update our email address in their records. You shall then be able to log in by the site name instead of its ip address. We regret the inconvenience to our patrons and thank them for their understanding. All our other sites are not affected and shall be available as usual.

Until next week, please enjoy the rest of the newsletter. And have great time on New Years Eve!!

- M&SJ

WORLD'S YOUNGEST PHILATELIST?

Les Winick from USA wrote: Here is a news item for you from a British publication: Headline is "World's youngest Philatelist" with a picture of a young lad. The copy reads: "A Young Indian Boy-who collects maps on stamps-is set to enter the Guinness Book of Records as the youngest award winning philatelist. Mushan Adars received a silver bronze at the age of three years and nine months at the APPEX '99 state level show in India and his father has now put him forward for the record books. His collection "My Stamp" came about after watching the Discovery Channel and recognizing countries." Can you find out more details for me? Is his father just using him or is the child really a collector?

Airmail letters were being given preference. As yet there was no arrangement for mails from places not accessible by air services.

TRI-WEEKLY SERVICE BETWEEN KARACHI AND DACCA

September 25, 1947, Calcutta: Orient Airways announce that the government of Pakistan have now given them permission to operate a tri-weekly mail and passenger air service in both directions between Karachi and Dacca.

The new air route which will commence operation at the beginning of October, will establish link between Eastern and Western Pakistan. DC 3 aircraft will be assigned to fly the route in approximately 10 hours and from December a new fleet of Convair lines having a speed of 300 mph will be used.

Orient airways will also run two other inland air routes carrying passengers and mails, one from Karachi to Peshawar via Quetta, Lahore and Rawalpindi and the other from Calcutta to Chittagong via Dacca and Sylhat. Services come into operation from next month.

ISSUE OF NEW PAKISTAN STAMPS FROM DECEMBER 1, 1947

November 5, 1947: It is learnt from the office of the Postmaster General, Lahore that the Pakistan Government will issue its own stamps and embossed stationery from December 1, writes a "Civil and Military Gazette" reporter.

Due to certain unavoidable delays the Government had to postpone the circulation which had originally been scheduled from November 1, 1947, from the central office of issue at Nasik. Since October 1 the Government has set into circulation postage stamps overprinted with "PAKISTAN". It is understood that mail which bears "INDIA GOVERNMENT" postage stamps without a "PAKISTAN" overprint will not be accepted at any post office.

The issue of airmail letter cards and embossed stationery for European and elsewhere overseas will remain as before the change over up till December 1, 1947, after which date the existing cards and envelopes etc., will not be valid.

This decision has been taken by the Ministry of Communications in consultation with the Quaid-e-Azam's Relief Fund Committee.

These stamps will not be used as postal stamps, but may be used in addition to the ordinary postage for purpose of publicity.

INDIAN AIR LETTER STATIONERY STILL "CURRENT" IN PAKISTAN

Indian air letter forms and similar postal stationery will continue to be "current" in Pakistan until arrangements are completed for their replacement by new Pakistan forms or by overprints of existing one.

This was learned by inquiries from the Lahore GPO on Monday, when an official spokesman said that it was hoped to time the change over for January 1, 1948, but the actual date would depend on the availability of supplies of the new Pakistan stationery.

TWELVER AIR SERVICES

December 1, 1947, New Delhi: The Communications Minister, Mr. Rafi Ahmed Kidwai told ... that the Government of India have agreed to the operation by a Pakistan airline of services on the following routes:

(1) Karachi – Delhi (2) Dacca – Delhi (3) Karachi – Bombay (4) Chittagong – Calcutta (5) Dacca – Calcutta

The arrangement is provisional subject to the conclusion of a bilateral air transport agreement between the two Governments by December 31, 1947. The terms of a long-term bilateral air transport agreement between the two countries were under examination.
