FAKE STAMP SCAM UPDATES

Maharashtra State's Deputy Chief Minister Chhagan Bhujabal had resigned on December 23, 2003 owing moral responsibility for the attack on a private television network's office by activists of his party. The Chief Minister had immediately forwarded the resignation to Maharashtra Governor Mohammed Fazal who has accepted the same. Bhujbal is so far the most powerful political victim of the Telgi scam.

Three persons were arrested on December 23, 2003 for selling fake stamp papers from a food stall on the fourth floor of the City Civil Court at Kolkata. Acting on a tip off, detective department personnel of the city police conducted a raid in the stall and seized huge amount of stamp papers and arrested the three. The exact amount of fake stamp paper seized was not known. The arrested persons were identified as Sushil Kumar De, owner of the stall, and his two employees Santosh Bar and Tarun Das. Investigations were on to ascertain whether they had any link with the Telgi racket.

Stamp paper racket kingpin Abdul Karim Telgi alias Kareem Lala was taken to Victoria Hospital, Bangalore, on December 22, 2003 for narco-analytical test and routine checkup amid high security. Narco-analysis involves injecting a person with a carefully regulated dose of anesthetic sodium pentothal, also known as truth serum. Under the influence of anesthetic, the person is lulled into a state of semi-stupor and, when questioned under this condition, usually reveals the truth.

Suspended general manager of India Security Press, Gangaprakash Chaudhari and its suspended works manager Mahendra Singh were on December 22, 2003 remanded to CBI custody till December 30, 2003. The two were produced before Additional Sessions and District Judge AK Gunjotikar by CBI officials. Singh, who was suspended by the Union Finance Ministry, was arrested on December 21, 2003.

Chaudhary was allegedly involved in selling of stamp printing machinery from ISP as scrap in 1997 to Abdul Karim Telgi, the main accused in the scam, and had also met Telgi in Mumbai in 1998 for his promotion as the General Manager. He was arrested by CBI at Hyderabad on December 19 and was brought to Nasik Road on December 21, 2003 for interrogation.

Former Maharashtra Director General of Police (DGP) Subhashchandra Malhotra was on December 11, 2003 questioned by the SIT in connection with the multi-crore stamp paper scam. Malhotra had given a clean chit to the then Mumbai police commissioner R S Sharma when SIT chief DIG Subodh Jaiswal had presented a report on the omissions and commissions of the Pune police in the investigation of the fake stamp paper scam.

INDIA POST DEMATERIALIZE SAVINGS CERTIFICATES

India Post in association with National Securities Depository Limited (NSDL) has taken an initiative to demat the National Savings Certificates and Kisan Vikas Patras as a step towards investors' convenience, enhanced security and possibility of future tradability of these instruments.

In the beginning only 10 Post offices in Mumbai, Mumbai GPO, Dadar HO, Mumbai Central HO, Andheri HO, Nariman Point PO, Ghatkopar (West) PO, Rajawadi PO, Motilal Nagar PO, Wagle Industrial Estate PO, and Panvel HO will offer this facility.

Dematerialization of Savings Certificates entails the process of converting the paper certificates into an equivalent number of securities/units in electronic form and crediting them into the investors' DP Account with Depository Participant (DP).

The procedure in this regard is as follows. The investor will apply in an application form directly or through an agent to any of the above Post offices as at present. The investor will be mailed 'Statement of Transaction' having the details of units credited in his DP Account. The investors who are already having a DP Account can quote the same in the application form. NSDL will open a DP Account in respect of all those investors who are not having a DP Account. The facility of transfer, nomination, premature encashment (in case of KVP), and pledge will be available to the investor in the 'demat mode'. The payment of interest will continue to be the same. No extra charge will be passed on to the investor for which he is not paying at present. The payment of redemption amount on the maturity of the certificates to the investor can either be to the investors' bank account or through cheque/ warrant.

The benefits to the customers are: Convenience arising from making a single/no visits to the Post office for the entire life cycle of investing in the instrument (including purchase and redemption), Consolidation of multiple holdings in a single account, Dispensation of the need to hold physical paper which is perishable as well as unsafe, Secure mode of retaining the savings as it is tamper-proof, Automatic redemption on due date, Future possibility of enhanced liquidity (NSC/KVP becoming tradable), Continuation of all the existing facilities to transfer and pledge, make nominations etc, and Full portability (No need for transfer of the instrument from one Post office to another).

VIEWS & OPINIONS

READERS FORUM

<Dear Reader, Your feedback is important to us as it helps evolve the newsletter. Please do let us have your thoughts and suggestions.>

S C SUKHANI a well-known professional philatelist and a former member of the Philatelic Advisory Committee writes: The special first day of issue postmark is not available on the day of issue at Kolkata for most stamp issues this month such as India Korea Joint Issue, 200th session of Rajya Sabha, and Sangeet Natak Akademi. The philatelists may be facing such problem at several other bureaus too.

It will be best if India Post processes the first day covers at one central location and supplies the complete FDC directly to the standing order account holders.
