JHINGANS JOTTINGS

Hi

"I think tolerance is needed, now and badly. I personally seek nothing from philately but the pleasure and relaxation it provides, the knowledge and learning it supplies, and the good friendship it leads to. I plead with those among my writer, dealer, and collector friends who have the best interests of our avocation at heart, to do their utmost to see that the present unfortunate trend is promptly changed. Let's get back to where it is fun and pleasant to collect, or deal in, or to read and write about stamps!"

- From an article by Van Dyk MacBride in the 'American Philatelist' January 1945 and quoted by American Philatelic Society President, Janet Klug in her column in 'American Philatelist' April 2006; also available online at the Virtual Stamp Club.

Until next week, please enjoy the rest of the newsletter.

VIEWS & OPINIONS

READERS FORUM

<Dear Reader, Your feedback is important to us as it helps evolve the newsletter. Please send us have your thoughts and suggestions.>

RAKESH WALIA, Chandigarh

The stamp on 62 cavalry has been released on 1-4-06 by the Chief Minister of Punjab. The design of the stamp released differs with the design of the stamp printed on the brochure

This has happened first time that the designs do not match. India Post has either send the wrong design to the printer of the brochure or the printer New Model Impex Pvt LTD, New Delhi, has printed a design that was not checked before releasing it to the various philatelic bureaus of the country.

There is some mistake or the other in every stamp which has been released in the past few months.
