JHINGANS JOTTINGS

Hi

India Post has invented dynamic rescheduling of dates of release. Take a look at first 40 days of the year:

K K Birla was rescheduled from January 21 to February 19. Spices of India is rescheduling resulted in its premature release. INTACH issue was rescheduled from January 27 to 28. National Girl Child Day from February 4 to 5, 2009. (That National Girl Child Day is observed on January 24 is another matter altogether.) Postal Life Insurance issue was rescheduled from February 5 to February 11, 2009. Santaji Jagnade was rescheduled from February 8 to February 9, 2009.

Until next week, please enjoy the rest of the newsletter.

INDIA & STATES AUCTION

Christoph Gartner of Germany info@auktionen-gaertner.de is holding its 9th auction sale of 11,000 lots from February 18 to 21, 2009. There are 3 catalogs - 1 Overseas/Europe/ thematics, 2 Germany, & 3 Collections.

In addition a special catalog covers India and Indian States with proofs, essays, rare stamps, varieties, multiples, sheets and postal history. An auction sale of India and Indian States by a major auctioneer is indeed a special event for Indian philately. Peter Rover the well known expert on Indian philately and Dr Volker Schilling contributed to preparing the catalog covering 892 lots.

The catalog is also available online at http://www.auktionen-gaertner.de/WWW/PHILNET/GAERTNER/GPHOME.NSF/\(HTML\)/Start-E?OpenDocument/Start-E?OpenDocument)

INDIA YEAR BOOK 2008

Lieutenant Colonel D K S Chauhan, Postmaster General, Gujarat released the India Postage Stamp Year Book 2008 on January 30, 2008 at Ahmedabad during the Festival of Stamps.

Developed by Narendra Kumar kumarnarendra1960@yahoo.co.in and published by Eeshan Prakashan the year books were introduced in 2008 with launch of Year book 2007. Its high quality was appreciated by all. On popular demand the publication program of Year Books for years 2000 onwards was launched and Year book 2006 was published. Later the publication program expanded to cover Loose Leaf Set of Year books that are printed on one side on card and ready for display. For further details please visit <http://www.stampsofindia.com/other/yearbook.htm>

The hardbound books with slip case illustrate in full color on art paper all the stamps, miniature sheets, first day covers, first day of issue postmark, max cards, and stamp packs issued by India Post in the year. It adds a write-up, specifications, and several relevant illustrations. It also has place to mount the stamps and miniature sheets.

MORE PREMATURE ISSUES

The Spices of India a set of 5 stamps and a miniature sheet was originally scheduled for release on January 24, 2009. India Post decided to postpone the release and new dates will be announced later. This decision perhaps didn't reach some philatelic bureaus in time who consequently sold the miniature sheet of spices of India issue.

The image of the miniature sheet of spices of India is available at <http://www.stampsofindia.com/other/premature.htm>

PHILATELISTS HONORED

Gujarat Philatelists Association honored following philatelists during recently concluded Festival of Stamps at Ahmedabad:

Life Time Achievement Award to Manik Jain, Kolkata for serving the cause of Indian philately by publishing Stamp Catalog and Stamp Albums of India for a long time

Life Time Achievement Award to Madhukar Jhingan, New Delhi for serving the cause of Indian philately by maintaining a website and publishing a digital weekly magazine for a long time

Life Time Achievement Award to Anand Swarup Mittal, Jaipur for serving the cause of Indian philately by being a stamp dealer and auctioneer for 60 years

Promising Young Stamp Dealer Award to Markand Dave, Nadiad for serving the cause of Indian philately by attending philatelic events worldwide

FESTIVAL OF STAMPS

Gujarat Philatelists Association organized the Festival of Stamps at Ahmedabad from January 30 to February 1, 2009. In the past the competitive exhibits have overshadowed all other activity in all philatelic events large or small. The Festival of Stamps was a national philatelic event without competitive exhibits and the philatelists were able to interact in a stress free environment. Participants and visitors from all over India were treated to unprecedented hospitality by the organizers.

Over 50 Sales booths form all over India including that of India Post and over 100 stamp dealers provided great opportunity to the buyers.

Auctions were also held on first and second day evening. The general view has been that in these times of global financial crisis the stamps in India fared better than share market and real estate sectors.

The successful holding of the Festival that was well organized, well managed, and well promoted, goes on to show that India now has the potential to host international stamp fairs on lines of Riccione and Essen.

Now days, issues are scheduled and rescheduled for release at very short notice say couple of days! As you can see that the world is moving at very fast pace and we are still bringing out an issue only after 7 long days. Thus it is impossible to inform our readers thru this weekly publication about forthcoming stamp issues of India. We however do our best to publish this information on the home page of www.stampsofindia.com as soon as it becomes available.

New issues along with the First Day Cover and the information sheet, at Rs 2 each, are put on sale on sale at nearly 1000 selected Post Offices including all Philatelic Bureaus and Philatelic Counters in India.

VIEWS & OPINIONS

READERS FORUM

<Dear Reader, Your feedback is important to us as it helps evolve the newsletter. Please send us have your thoughts and suggestions.>

HEMANT V KULKARNI, Milwaukee, USA

I've noted with interest Lesley Brine's remarks on behalf of apparently prestigious Stanley Gibbons Catalogue (Issue# 378) that it will not list 'India miniature sheets', reason being such sheets have a typical (stamp) face value of Rs. 5 each while the Indian postal service officially prints it as Rs. 15. In other words (and in a civilized manner) this translates to saying this to be an official BLACK MARKETING practice by the government itself. Indeed it is and I suggest that a simple solution would be to eliminate this official printing of Rs. 15 on such sheets and let the market conditions dictate how much they should fetch in the open market. Here in the USA (and probably in rest of the world) every stamp memorabilia shows the true face value of its stamp and the postal service officially sells it at a premium without printing such mark up on the memorabilia itself. This is commonsense that should filter through resolving several other issues that give Indian Philately a black eye -thus questioning the integrity and value of commemorative stamps and artifacts themselves.

On an unrelated issue, I was awestruck to find the number of stamps India issues (nine on March 01, 09 alone) on INDIVIDUALS which must cause a hardship to an average stamp collector who may be limited to his/her resources and is required to purchase such commemoratives (however worthy of individual's honour) to remain up todate in collection for the sake of love of this apparently expensive hobby. It should hurt even more considering the fact that such purchases still remain a hurdle thanks to India's beurocratic and inept operation of related postal bureaus -the official vendor who is actually funded from the public tax-revenue of which the stamp collector has been an indirect part.
