Jhingans Jottings

Hi,

Two of our friends are celebrating Golden Wedding Anniversaries in November 2015. Both are well known philatelists and most of you know them. Prem Ratan Maru will have the celebrations on November 19 at Bikaner and Vispi S Dastur will have the celebrations on November 28 at Mumbai. Our hearty congratulations to both the couples.

We will be in Lucknow for the Zonal show on October 31, November 1 & 2, 2015 and look forward to see many friends there.

Until next week, please enjoy the rest of the newsletter.

- M&SJ

Our thanks to the Contributors and Sources to this issue: Prashant Pandya,

A Philatelic Tribute to Police of India and the Sub-Continent

Sidney Kitson, our friend and the author of 'A Philatelic Tribute to Police of India and the Sub-Continent' was an officer of Indian Police Service and in served for many years as the Director General of West Bengal Armed Police was a passionate philatelist specialising in Police theme. He passed away in Bangalore in 2005.

Although published in 2002 by the Government of India, the book has not been marketed. The book has 132 all color art paper pages hardbound with jacket and was originally priced at Rs 995 in India and US$ 49 for overseas. At Stamps of India we are fortunate to secure 10 copies of the book and are pleased to offer on first come first serve basis at Rs 1200 post-paid in India and USD 50 post-paid worldwide. Contact Madhukar Jhingan mj@stampsofindia.com now.

Following is the original news report we carried in Stamps of India Collectors Companion Issue #58 of March 28, 2002:

Well-known philatelist and former Director General of West Bengal Armed Police, Sidney Kitson of Kolkata has authored 'A Philatelic Tribute to Police of India & the Sub-Continent' it is a handsomely produced coffee-table book published by the Bureau of Police Research & Development, Ministry of Home Affairs, Government of India.

Khushwant Singh while reviewing this book wrote - The story of our postal services and their close collaboration with the police needed to be put on record. They could not have found a better authority than S. Kitson, now living a retired life in Kolkata, to do so.

We could not resist adding this quote from his review “My opinion of the Indian Postal Services rocketed sky-high ten years or so ago when an irate Canadian Khalistani wrote me a very abusive letter in Gurmukhi with the address in English which read: ‘To bastard Khushwant Singh, India’. It was delivered to me within a week of its dispatch from Canada. I can't think of another country in the world where postal services would have bothered to locate an individual with so unsavoury reputation to discharge the duty entrusted to it.”
